Students with a parent or guardian who serves as a Jewish community leader are eligible for subsidies. Children of community leaders will receive a scholarship of up to $4,000 per year. The full scholarship will be granted to active lay leaders (e.g., presidents) and full-time top professional leaders (e.g., executive directors, rabbis, heads of school, etc.) of the Jewish Federations of Greater Hartford, Greater New Haven and Western Massachusetts; the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Hartford, the Jewish Foundation of Greater New Haven, and the Jewish Endowment Foundation of Western Massachusetts; beneficiary agencies of the three Federations; and all synagogues in the three Federations' catchment areas. In addition, all active board members and professional staff in these organizations will receive a $1,000 annual scholarship. These scholarships will be renewable contingent on continued active board involvement and/or employment in the Jewish agencies.
